

Essam Al Sheibany is the Vice President of Sustainability at Asyad group, Oman's flagship logistics and supply chain group, offering end-to-end solutions from ports, free zones, maritime shipping, and last-mile express delivery. As a Sustainability VP, Essam plays a key role in building and maintaining all the Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) activities within the group to position Asyad among the top 10 integrated logistics companies in the world; Essam is also driving the Decarbonization initiatives and facilitate the Green Hydrogen projects initiatives within the group, previously he was

Group VP for QHSSE where he was taking care of health and safety of employees, contractors, and costumers, and protect environment and recently the scope of Sustainability Development initiatives within the Group was added to his role.

Al Sheibany was a member of several local and international bodies and executive committees looking into Sustainability and ESG related topics. Essam led the implementation of a number of operational projects in Oman and internationally. As an engineer, Energy Expert, Climate Change activist, ESG champion and green business developer he has more than 30 years of experience in Oil and Gas, Project Management, HSE and many areas mainly centered Operational Excellence. He has BSc in Engineering Management from Oman and his 2 master's degrees from UK in Operations Management and Advanced Process Engineering.